City Manager

DIVISION OF POLICE
DEPARTMENT OF SAFETY

April 1, 1936, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. C. A. Dykstra, City Manager,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Sr:

Herewith is submitted the Annual Report of the activities of this department for the year ending December 31, 1935:

PERSONNEL AND TRAINING

At the close of the year 1934, the total personnel was 620, including a clerical force of 21. In the early part of 1935, ten additional patrolmen were appointed to enlarge the Safety Patrol. During the latter part of the year no vacancies were filled, because of a lack of funds, which left a total personnel of 622 at the close of the year, with a clerical force of 20. It is expected that these vacancies will be filled in 1936.

Regular school classes and target practice were held for all members of the department. There also was one class of recruits in the early part of the year.

The staff of the Police School, with proper credentials from the Red Cross First-Aid, has been instructing all patrol-wagon men and members of the force under the age of forty years in first aid. Eighty men have already received their diplomas.

A Drum Corps of twenty-four men was organized, and instruments were purchased with funds voluntarily contributed by members of the department.

Company drills for all members of the uniformed force were held during the early part of the year.

The annual inspection and review of the police force was held on Elm Street, opposite Music Hall, on June 1, with a splendid showing. The newly-organized Police Drum Corps, with its stirring music, contributed greatly to the success of the affair.

POLICE MEMORIAL SERVICE

A Police Memorial Service was held at the Emery Auditorium on Sunday afternoon, February 17, the first one in fifteen years. It was very impressive and well attended, and it is hoped that the ceremony may be held annually in the future.

KILLED IN LINE OF DUTY

Detective Sergeant John A. Cameron was shot while attempting to arrest two robbery suspects who were in an automobile in front of 1013 West Eighth Street at 1:40 P.M., April 26. He died from the effects of his wounds at 7:50 P.M. of the same day. Both suspects, who had made their escape, were apprehended -- one mortally wounded.

CHANGES AND IMPROVEMENTS

(a) Certain branches of the department were relocated during the year, and other necessary physical changes were made to permit the centralized registration of all arrests effective January 1, 1936. This plan involves the registration and detention at one station only of all persons arrested -- at the Central Station, located in the City Hall. It is expected that various economies will result from the adoption of this method -- especially lower costs of transporting prisoners, reduction of clerical work, and elimination of the care of prisoners at district stationhouses. Furthermore, this system provides uniform, typewritten "Records of Arrest", removing many former sources of error in preparing the Municipal Court dockets, and at the same time actually reducing the cost of forms used for this purpose.

(b) As part of the revision of arrest procedure, the Safety Patrol (Traffic Squad) was moved from the City Hall to the Second District Police Station. In line with the need for stricter enforcement of traffic laws, the personnel of this division was increased from 28 men in 1934 to 51 in 1935. This increase of personnel on traffic duty, with the resulting tremendous increase in traffic arrests and citations, has undoubtedly helped to curb the increasing number of vehicular accidents.

(c) The Identification Bureau was relocated and better arrangements provided for the conduct of all duties performed by this office.

(d) The broadcasting desk and the teletype transmitter were moved from the basement of the City Hall to a new location on the third floor. With a sound-proof room and pneumatic tube connection to Central Station, the operation of Station X has been improved and messages are received with greater clarity.

(e) The Bureau of Records moved into its new, larger quarters in the latter part of December.

(f) A complete "Plant and Equipment Record" was set up during the year, to provide control of all police property and to permit calculation of its evaluation from year to year.

MOTOR EQUIPMENT

The following automobiles were purchased and placed in service:

Four Ford V-8 new type scout cars for Districts 3, 5, 6, and 7. These cars respond to serious accidents and are equipped with first-aid kits and stretchers to convey injured persons to a hospital. They can also be used to haul five prisoners. These scout cars are a valuable addition to the service.

Sixteen new Ford V-8 coupes were purchased as replacements.

Ten Harley-Davidson and five Indian solo motorcycles were bought to accommodate increased personnel of the Motorcycle Squad.

POLICE RADIO

Following is a summary of the work performed by the police radio system:

Total number of calls broadcast, 146,983; average per month, 12,248 -- per day,

Total number of hours transmitter was in operation, 550.48; average per month, 46.20 -- per day, 1.20.

4/1/36

POLICE RADIO (Continued)

Total number of radio-equipped cars, 108; motorcycles, 6.

Total number of times cars were turned in for radio repairs, 1597; average per month, 133 -- per day, 4.38.

Total cost of material used in repairs to radio equipment in cars for the year, $1,669.11; average per month, $138.95 -- per car per month, $1.22.

Total number of radio service calls to Station X, district and patrol houses, 73; average per month, 6. Total cost of materials used to service these radios, $45.83; average cost per month, $3.88.

Total cost of repairs and replacements to transmitter, $443.11; average cost per month, $36.92.

The radio department constructed and installed 25 new-type auto radio receiving sets in new cars.

New equipment was also built and installed in the radio room of Station X at its new location in the City Hall.

STATISTICS

To permit easy reference, a complete alphabetical index has been prepared for this Annual Report. The trend of offenses, arrests, and other police matters are shown on several tabulations which give the figures for the past five years.

Respectfully,

EUGENE T. WEATHERLY,
Chief of Police

HISTORICAL OUTLINE

Settled in 1788, and a frontier town for many years, Cincinnati was incorporated as a village in 1802, with a population of some 800.

Earliest policing dates from 1803, when a night watch of male citizens, serving in rotation without pay, was established by the President (Mayor) of Council. Each man thus serving carried a watchman's rattle for summoning assistance and making other signals.

With Cincinnati's rapid growth to a city, certain citizens, irked by their enforced duty as watchmen, initiated a movement in 1819 to establish a fund to pay for the services of professional night-watchmen appointed by the Mayor. In 1826, these numbered two captains and eighteen patrolmen.

Finally in 1834, City Council passed an ordinance levying a tax on property owners to pay for the salaries of these men, thus creating a true "police force" under direct responsibility to the taxpayers of the city. In 1842, a day watch of two men was added to supplement the night force.

From earliest date these watchmen were under authority of the various town or city marshals. In 1859, the position of City Marshal was abolished and that of Chief of Police created. This latter title was changed, in 1873, to that of Superintendent of Police.

All appointments and dismissals of police personnel from the beginning were on a political basis, at the pleasure of the mayors in office. In 1886, however, a non-partisan Board of Police Commissioners was established to take over the direct supervision and control of the force from the Mayor, with selection on a merit basis as the requisite for appointment or promotion of members.

In 1903, a Board of Public Safety was formed by a merger of the Boards of Police and Fire Commissioners. At this time the position of Chief of Police was re-established.

Six years later, in 1909, the Board of Public Safety was abolished, and a Director of Public Safety was appointed to assume charge of the police, fire, welfare, and other safety functions.

In 1910, the merit system of appointments and promotions was fortified by the passage of the present Civil Service Law and formation of a Board of Commissioners and Civil Service Examiner.

The year 1913 witnessed the discard of horse-drawn vehicles and the motorization of the patrol wagon service, together with the use of motorcycles for traffic patrol.

On January 1, 1926, the City Charter form of government was inaugurated, placing the police, together with all other executive branches of the municipal service, directly under control of the City Manager.

In 1927, the number of police districts, station and patrol houses was reduced from ten to seven, and a teletype system of intercommunication was installed.

In 1928, motor patrol of beats in outlying districts replaced foot patrol. During this same year, the present Bureau of Records was organized.

Communication was considerably improved by the completion of the police radio broadcasting system and establishment of Station X in the City Hall in 1931.

In 1934, with the number of deaths from vehicular accidents constantly increasing, the first unit of an Accident Investigation Squad was added to the Traffic Division. This consisted of one automobile equipped with public address amplifier for street use; measuring tapes, camera, motion picture projector, etc.

A noteworthy addition to police activities was made in 1934, when the crime laboratory was established, with quarters in the Cincinnati General Hospital.
